

Joining instructions:

There are two ways to apply for membership of the British Society of Oral Implantology;

1. By post
2. Online

By Post

You may become a member of the BSOI by downloading the membership application form and returning the completed application to the BSOI office with the appropriate remittance.

Online

You may become a member of the British Society of Oral Implantology by using the online subscription facility. To use this facility simply select the fee structure that relates to your present position e.g. "BSOI annual subscription" and click "Subscribe". You will then be invited to pay the relevant membership fee by PayPal or credit card. Once your membership has been processed you will have access to the member's area of the BSOI website where you should access the Practitioner Registration page and fill in your details. Should you wish to apply to become a Fellow, Diplomat, Academic or Consulting member of BSOI you can do so on the Practitioner Registration page where the facility for uploading case details is available. To ensure that your application for advanced membership is processed you must select "Advanced subscription".

If you require assistance with your membership application do not hesitate to contact the BSOI office.
